James Michael Brechtel

Tucson Az, 85705

jamesbrechtel@gmail.com (520)-678-6303

Objective

- To obtain a Software Developer position at General Motors      - short term
- To reach management by 35 years old      - long term

Skills

- Proficient ability to write code in Java, Python, C, JavaScript, HTML, and Assembly languages
- Experience in SQL, C++, R, Ruby, .NET, and many more
- Experience with Git, GitPages, and team based work in Git and other shared code environments
- Proficient knowledge of Windows and Linux command line and file structures
- Proficient in design, development, and bug testing of software
- Trained in Business Information and Enterprise content management
- Trained and knowledgeable of data warehousing, ETL, PROD, and PREPROD environments.
- Knowledgeable and trained in software development from operating systems to user interfaces
- Motivated, team oriented, goal drive, and excited to learn
- Long term focused, flexible, adaptable, autodidactic, and foresight oriented
- Intermediate Mandarin Chinese reading, writing, and speaking ability

Experience

- Raytheon Programming Internship      - Oct  2015 - May 2016
- Bruegger's Bagels line worker      - May2016 - July  2016
- The Schlenke Lab: Bioinformatics and Data Analysis      - Jan  2019 - Oct 2019
- Tucson Electric Power: BI_ECM      - Nov 2019   June 2021

Education

- Graduate of Cienega High School, Vail AZ      - Graduated May 2016
- Graduate of the University of Arizona      - Graduated May 2021
- BS Computer Science
- BA East Asian Studies - Chinese language focus

Communication

- Email and office etiquette experience
- Enjoys asking questions in order to learn and gain input
- Enjoys speaking to management to gain wisdom and tips

Communication Philosophy

Teams are like any structure and need a strong foundation upon which to stand. This foundation is made up of compassion and dedication to bettering oneself as well as supporting the growth and development of one's team.